'Voice Evolved' are voice workshops for professional and developing vocal and interdisciplinary artists. An opportunity to learn advanced techniques and tools through guided exploration of individual vocal palette and group collage.

The goal of the work is to radically shift individual perception of how the voice is used, bringing an awareness of vocal habits and gathering voice knowledge that can be transferred to any performance situation.

- Vocal strength and endurance
- Tone and Texture & Colour
- Projection
- Developing a Vocal Palette

- Clarity
- Resonance
- Vocal Dynamics
- Breath support

Participants are encouraged to validate their own unique voice, release fear around speaking and singing, increase self-awareness through voice work, develop self confidence and self-esteem, and enhance their creative potential.

Sheinagh Anderson is a professional performing/recording artist, singer, soundscape artist for film ,video ,theatre and dance, a creator, and teacher. She has toured with Cirque du Soleil performing as their principal vocalist in North America, Australia and Japan. She teaches participants essential tools gathered from over 20 years of professional performance experience in music (opera, jazz, celtic, sacred overtone singing, South Indian voice) dance, theatre and circus.

Sheinagh has taught workshops privately, at colleges and universities and for dance, theatre and circus companies across Canada, the United States and Australia. As a master voice teacher Sheinagh has developed a practical and intuitive approach towards the performance and teaching of voice.
